

To: Editor of the Benchmark

RE: The Gregory A. Adams Juvenile Justice Center

On April 10, 2007, the DeKalb County Board of Commissioners voted unanimously to name the new $37.5 million Juvenile Court, the “Gregory A. Adams Juvenile Justice Center”, thereby making Gregory A. Adams the first judge to have a building named in his honor since DeKalb County was founded in 1822. The Gregory A. Adams Juvenile Justice Center was dedicated on June 22, 2007.

Judge Gregory A. Adams had served as the Chief Judge of the DeKalb County Juvenile Court for 10 years prior to his election to the Superior Court of DeKalb County in 2004. The superior court is the court of general jurisdiction that has exclusive jurisdiction over felonies, divorces, disputes over title to land and equity matters in Georgia.

Judge Adams is a member of the American Judges Association.

